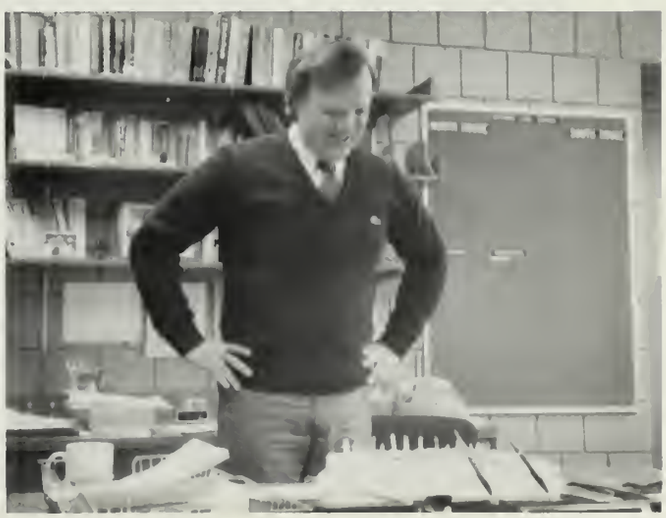
DEDICATION

We, the class of 1988, dedicate this yearbook to Mr. Arthur Nicholson. We want to thank him for all the assistance and-support that he has given us during our four years at Methuen High School. Congratulations on being appointed to the principalship!

To: Mr. Jarvis
From: The Class of 1988

Good luck and best wishes in your future endeavours.
Thank you for all that you did for us.



"HOMECOMING"

"WILDCATS"

Powderpuff Football

This year's game ended in a 6-6 tie. The seniors touchdown came on a pass from Karen Zraket to Sue Ryan. Unfortunately the referees called a tight game because the underclassmen were getting trampled. Despite the refs, the seniors all turned in fine performances.

"THREE O'CLOCK HIGH"

Spirit Week

"DIRTY DANCING"

Homecoming Dance

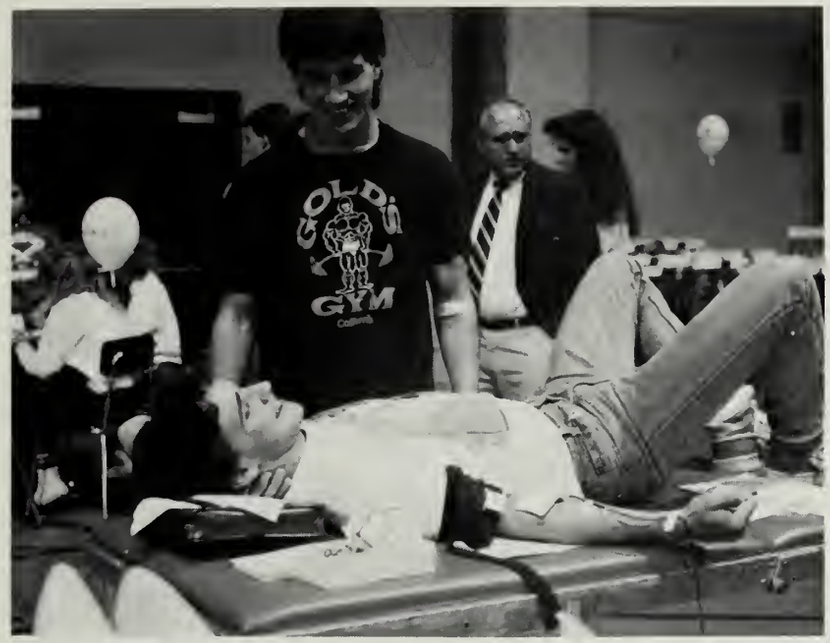
This year's homecoming dance was quite a success. Thanks to the seniors there was a good number of people and although dances usually don't go over too well at Methuen, everyone showed a lot of enthusiasm and generally had a great time. Hopefully this dance can continue to become more popular in the future.

"HALLOWEEN"

Costume Day

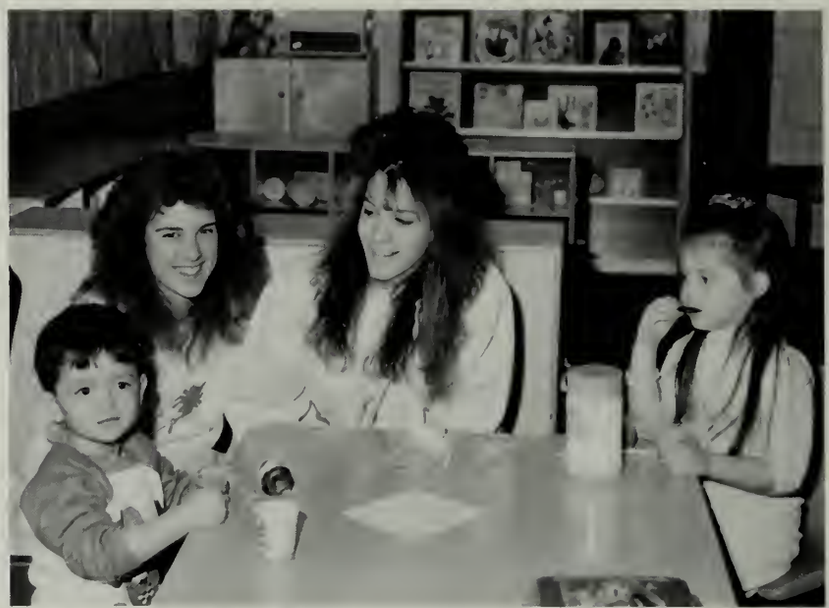
"LOVE AT FIRST BITE"

Bloodmobile



"ORDINARY PEOPLE"

Ordinary Day

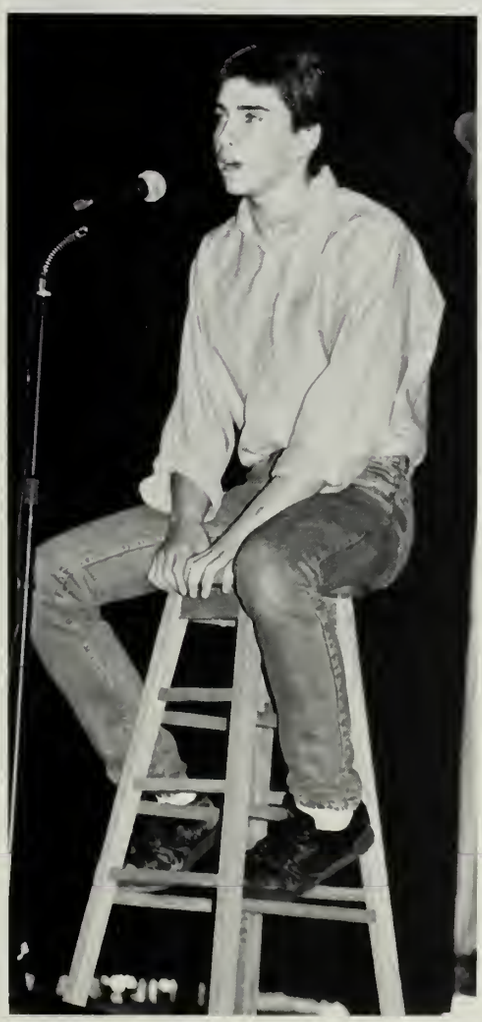


"JUST BETWEEN FRIENDS"

Friends

"FAME"

Variety Show



"A FOND FAREWELL"

The senior class of 1988 would like to just say thanks and give a fond farewell to Mrs. Hershfield and Mr. Jennings for all they've done to contribute to our education. Although we've only been around for four years of their many years here at Methuen, its become evident that they have made their mark on our lives. Thank you and we wish you the best of luck.

Special Thanks

The 1988 senior class would like to extend a warm thank you to Ms. Kevgas, Mrs. Krussell, Mr. Whiting and Mr. Moore in appreciataion for the many hours of their free time they gave up to make our year special. Every senior is truly greatful. Thank you all once again for the best year of our lives.

The boys cross country team, led by senior captain Sean Kiley, was outstanding this season finishing with a 10-2 record. They won the small school title and finished fourth in the State Class B meet, which qualified them for the All-State meet, a feat which has been accomplished only twice in the history of Methuen High School. Five members made the Small School All-Star team, Sean Kiley, Rob DiFalco, Chris Barbin, Tim Carney, and Eric Deshesne. Rob DiFalco made the All Conference team.

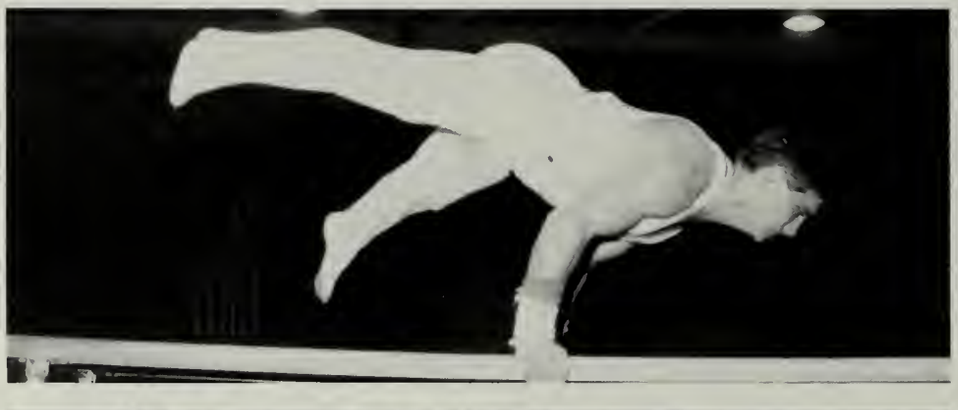
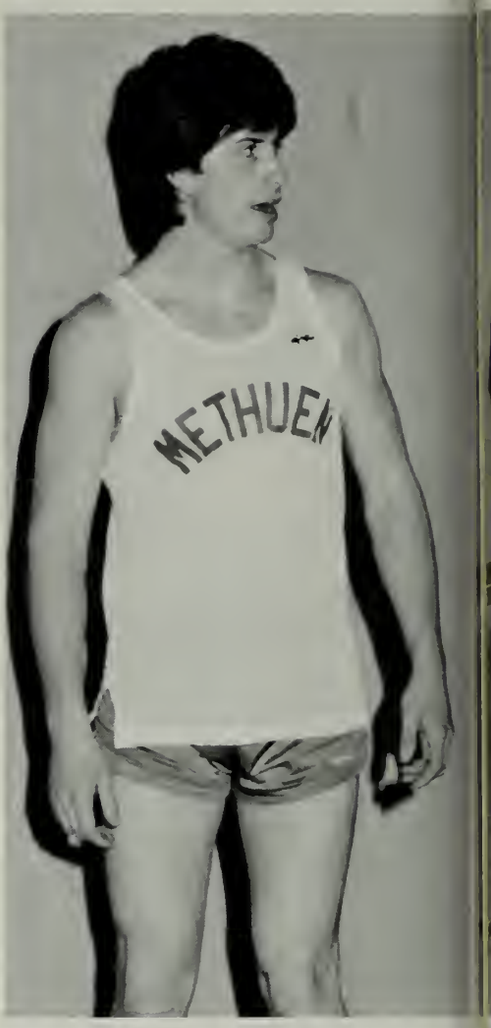
"AMERICAN ANTHEM"



The boys gymnastics team had an outstanding season. New head coach Ralph Miele brought enthusiasm to the team and seniors Jeff DeLucia, J.J. Gilbert, Chris Sciacca, John Ford, and Mike Piessens brought leadership to the team. They should do well next season having had many strong underclassmen

"WILDCATS"

"RUNNING BRAVE"



The boys indoor track team had an outstanding season, finishing undefeated and winning the MVC conference title. The team also finished second in the State Relays, State Class B Meet, and the Northern Area Meet. The team had outstanding performances from seniors Dana Miele, Chris Max, Dan Driscoll, Steve Feole and Marc Licciardi. Licciardi won the Northern Area title and the State title in the 300 yard dash, while Driscoll finished second in the state in the high jump and Feole finished sixth in the shot put. The mile relay team of Max, Licciardi, Miele, and junior Tim Carney also won the state title and went on to place tenth in the National Scholastic Track Championship at Yale University.

CLASS WILL

Let it be known, that we, the class of 1988 of Methuen, Mass., being of sound and reasonable mind and realizing the uncertainties of life upon leaving these hallowed halls of learning, do hereby decree this to be our last will and testament.
We, the class, leave Lisa Feole her own car to drive around in.
I, Paula, leave Jill, Sue, Donna, and Gina one, more escape from jogwalking class.
We, the MHS students who have had Mrs. Taylor for French II, leave her a game show buzzer from the Wheel of Fortune show.
We, the class of 1988, leave MHS behind but not without memories of both the good and bad as we look to the future and its many possibilities.
I, Craig Shevlin, leave Jeff York a pencil and a different cartoon character so that he may continue making T-shirts but of his OWN ideas.
I, Ray Veno, leave Alan Picarillo "Jerry".
We, the senior guys, leave Merideth Emery an Oscar for her performance at the Superlative Assembly.
We, the senior guys, also leave Heather Max an Oscar for best supporting actress at the assembly.
I, Mark "Spazz" Stevenson, leave Mr. Robillard "Spazz-a-Mania."
I, Sue Ryan, leave Amy Ryan and Tracie Petrie two more wonderful years at MHS.
We, the real athletes, leave the cheerleaders one week of our practices because cheerleaders are athletes, too.
We,"the boys", leave Kevin Carpenito a blow up life size doll of Donna Berryman that he can take to college with him.
We, the football team, leave Mr. Klimas a new chalkboard for half-time.
We, the hockey team, leave Fred Torissi some other players to blame for the shots he missed.
We Bassima Ramy and Kathy Rodriguez leave Mary a year supply of stamps and envelopes to send all her love letters to her boyfriend down in Florida.
I, Kristen Geary,leave my best friend Laurie Gendreau my friendship forever.
Clyde leaves Walter and Chester new nicknames.
We, Julie Guilmette, Judy Emmert, Katie Fox, Dorothy Hitchmoth, Sheri Lacroix, and Sean Collins, leave Mike Fluet some jokes that are really funny.
I Cindy Skaff leave Andrea Kelly a life time supply of lipstick.
I Tammy Pineau leave Kelli Gervais the great times we had the two years we were friends.
I Jim Battye leave Fred Ash a punching bag so he can stop puttimg cracks in his windshield.
We the Class of 1988 leave Angela Delmonte pronounciationlessons so she can read announcements better.
I leave Ralph Woekel a book of directions covering anything from "A to C".
I, Erin O'Neil, leave Kathy Hannley my brand new 1987-88 basketball sneakers.
I, Sue Kenney, leave Karen Saliba a year's supply of special angled teps and Grimace cookies.
We, Julie Guilmette and Lori Bonanno leave Marc DiBella a year's membership to Gold's Gym.

I, Paul Barraclough, leave Dan Ford his own room in my house.
We, Mr. McCormack's 7th period Psychology class, leave him one day of silence during the announcements.
I, Jenna Bennett leave Amanda Awarado, her prince charming.
I, Sean Kiley, leave Kevin Niceforo a book of memories with Gina Dion.
We, Chris Hart and Marc Liccardi, leave Mr. Jennings his own desk.
I, Lisa Riley, leave Donna Murphy the good times we had at Methuen and also a thank you for always being a true friend.
I, Meredith Emery, leave my soulmate all my love, great memories and the best of luck next year.
I, Sean Collins, leave Chris Sciacca someone else's girlfriend to flirt with.
We, "The Boys," leave Dana Miele a mop to wash up the grape juice in Dining Room 3.
We, "The Boys," leave Kevin Carpenito the gut buster and a burst of speed for the Lawrence game.
I, Mareen Jozokos, leave Mike Houle one free visit to Supercuts.
I, leave Tina Bourassa my friendship always remember, "Friends are friends forever if the Lord's the Lord of them."
I, Ted Tarini, leave Tim Ford all my full notebooks so he can get a head start on next year.
I, Michael Fluet, leave Lynda Cote a gag to keep her quiet for once.
Period 1 and 5 Physics classes leave Mr. Russell a new lab coat.
I, Steve Feole, leave the Class of 88 my thanks for the best 4 years of my life.
The students of first lunch leave John O'Connell a real microphone and recording session with Whitesnake.
We, the Class of 88, leave Mrs. Pelliter.
I, Liesel, leave Cindy Skaff the chance to be united with Sid Vicious and Jim Morrison.
I, Lori, leave Marybeth Fleming a big set of the brightest pink lips, for old times sake!
I, Kelly Logan, leave Marlene Maroun a year of free visits to orange arama.
I, Cheryl McGhee, leave Mark Hammond all the good memories we have shared in the past three years.
I, Chris Durso, leave Lori Lamonica a bunch of cheese to go with her crackers.
We the senior wide outs on the football team leave Mr. Klimas a new play book complete with pass plays.
We, Kathy Riley and Fred Torrisi, leave Mrs. Dirsa a teaching job at Haverhill High, season tickets to Haverhill girls basketball games, and a permanent seat on the Haverhill side.
We, Kathy and Fred, also leave Mrs, Dirsa a great big thank you for being such a kind woman and for putting up with us.
I, Bob Kramer, leave Chad Tardugno a life in Harlem.
I, Christopher Sciacca, leave Sean Collins a wrench so that he can loosen up a little.
We, Period 2, leave Mr. Whiting some goose-stepping Krauts to amaze next years class with.
We, the boys, leave all Mr. Ziminski's classes a bottle of caffeine to help keep them awake.

Signed and attested to this 2nd day of June, 1988.
Karen Boynes, Kathy Riley, Lynellen McDonnell, and Paula Picarillo.

History—

The year is 1984, we young, frightened freshmen are easy to recognize because we are all waiting around with all of our books, not yet realizing we can go to our lockers between classes. After realizing our homerooms weren't on the third floor next to the pool, we begin to figure out the north house-south house classes, and start to feel at home.

We elect officers--they are President, Sully Defrancisco; Vice-President, J.J. Gilbert; Secretary, Janet Wante and Treasurer, Raina Curran.

Even as freshmen we upheld the winning tradition of Ranger Athletics, with our teams turning in fine performances. After winning the MVC title in a showdown against Dracut, the football team advanced to the Superbowl. Despite an all out effort they fell short. The boys indoor and outdoor track teams both won MVC titles and the outdoor team went on to win the state title.

We met the famous Mr. Nick who, as we grew older became a most valuable friend.

About Thanksgiving time we are introduced to our new principal Mr. Robert Jarvis, but also around this time we were invaded by the rock people who vandalized our new school.

Spring time came and we knew that we had just about made it through freshman year because we were picking courses for next year and electing new class officers.

When we return in the fall, the school has a new appearence; we hardly recognize the second floor. They've built walls.

For our sophomore year our officers are President, Raina Curran; Vice President, Sue Kenney; Treasurer, Corrinne Bohne and Secretary Karen Saliba.

Our athletes continue to shine with the boy's outdoor track team winning the MVC, the soccer team winning the MVC, the girls' basketball team winning the MVC and going on to win the state title. The girls' outdoor track team won the MVC. The soccer team qualified for the State tournament, and the girls' cross country team increased in size from 4 members to 12 members.

41 sophomores were inducted into the National Honor Society, and a S.A.D.D. chapter was started at M.H.S.

Our class rings have finally arrived after month's of waiting, and everyone is now wearing them proudly.

Its spring time again, and we've made it through sophomore year. We elect new officers.

Our Junior year begins with President Paul Barraclough, Vice President Patti Griffin, Secretary Karen Boynes, and Treasurer J.J. Gilbert.

Our athletes continue to shine; the boys' cross country team wins the MVC, the girls' basketball team wins the MVC title, Sean Kiley wins the State title in wrestling for the 107 lb. class. The softball team wins the MVC, the boys' indoor and outdoor track teams win the MVC, the girls' winter track team captures the MVC title and beats Andover team for the first time 46-40, and the hockey team goes into the semi-finals of the North in the state tournament.

Class of 1988

9 Juniors are inducted into the National Honor Society. Officers are elected for the next year. They are President Marc Licciardi, Vice President Tessa Qualters, Secretary Brian Kuchar, Historian Ray Veno, and Treasurer Sue Ryan.

May 8 arrives and along with it comes our Junior Prom, According to the teachers it was one of the best proms the school has ever seen.

Spring came along and with elections and picking courses, came a flood and a three day vacation.

Fall came and finally we are seniors! Our senior class officers are President J. J. Gilbert, Vice President Marc Licciardi, Secretary Jodi Salvo, and Treasurer Patti Griffin.

Once again our sports team are outstanding. Our girls' cross country team wins the MVC, our girls' and boys' indoor and outdoor track teams win the MVC. The field hockey team after posting a freshman record of 3-15 qualifies for the states. The girls' basketball team won the MVC. Sean Kiley won the state wrestling title again, but this time for the 119 lb. class. Marc Licciardi won the state title in the 300 yard dash, and the mile relay team which consisted of Marc Licciardi, Dana Miele, Chris Max, and Tim Carney also won the state title. The softball team won the MVC, and the ski team won its first meet in over 4 years.

Our homecominng queen was chosen. Kristen Kaatz was awarded the crown, with Tricia Cuddy and Heather Lambert as runners up.

The Art Honor Society started a chapter at MHS. 20 members were inducted. Officers are President Karen Breen, Vice President Donna Getchell, Secretary Cindy Skaff, Historian Judy Emmert, and Treasurer Anna Luccisano.

25 seniors were inducted into the Spanish National Honor Society, and 4 were inducted into the French Honor Society.

The senior class play, The Mouse That Roared, was a huge success.

Despite all the controversy over the prom song, everyone seemed to have a good time.

Mr. Jarvis has left us and been replaced by "acting principal" Mr. Nick., who by now is a lifesaver and every seniors' close friend.

Well, its spring time again, but this time we don't have to pick courses or hold elections; instead were picking up caps and gowns, going to honors banquets and awards night. And most important-GRADUATING!!!

Prophecy

The year is 2008, the place is Methuen High School Field House, the occasion is the 20th reunion of the class of 1988. Although the place has not changed quite drastically. As the spotlight shines on the front door, the doorman announces the first arrivals.

Dan Lannan, Derek Robillard, Mike Wall, Steve Benson, Ralph Woekel, and John Batts are all donning their state troopers uniforms as they line the doorway and lead in some of the first guests, all former members of the class of 1988.

Shackled by the wrists is Heather Lambert who was arrested for driving without a license after having it revoked for getting into her 500th accident.

After trying his hand at acting to buy his Porsche 911 Turbo, Al Arcila found that stealing one would be easier. He was apprehended when he had to stop to allow Liesl Querengasser, who vowed never to have children, lead her twelve little bambinos across the street.

Our more violent criminals are at the end of the chained procession.

Kathy Bergeron is awaiting trial for attempted murder. She was found trying to beat her 2nd or was it her 3rd husband to death.

Chris Paolino is also awaiting trial for the murder of Dorothy Hitchmoth owner of the boutique "Designs by Dottie." Chris pleaded not guilty and contends that it was a mercy killing. Dorothy was allegedly talking herself to death.

Next come in our more conventional guests

Heather Max owner of the hair salon "Do's by Max" has just reappeared after seven years of seclusion in a laboratory. She has just invented the first pair of non-run nylons.

Our two Guiness Book of World Record holders, Sean Kiley who broke the record for the most nosebleeds in one day, and Donna Berryman who, after dating all the men in the free world moved to Communist China to try her hand with the billion over there.

Kathie Farrell and Jason Lee have taken the starring roles in "Dirty Dancing £2, £3, and £4 after being spotted by a talent scout at the junior prom.

Michelle Sabitino moved to a third world country where she attempted to take over, but was crushed by rebel forces led by former yearbook staffers Karen Zraket, Eillen O'Connell, Kristen Nitto, Paul Barraclough, and Marc Licciardi.

Lynellen McDonnell married famous writer Paul Ramirez and after having five children wrote her own best seller, "Me and the Mocha Babies."

Cindy Skaff finally got a piece of black construction paper from Mrs. Fiorello and gave it to artist Craig Shevlin who mounted his first million dollar work on it.

Mike Kinsella, after years of protesting for peace shaved his head and became a five star general in the Marine Corp. Members of his platoon are private J.J. Gilbert, private Andrea Kellt, private Karla Homesy, and corporal Joe Farrell.

After twenty years of courtship, Lisa Feole finally married Dr, Timothy Keany. They live in a large white house with a white picket fence. Rumor has it that Dan Ford has just taken over the milk route in that neighborhood.

Dan Lahey, five time Mr. Universe changed his name to Bruno and became the owner of Bruno's Bodybuilding. He currently resides in a mansion on Muscle Beach. Staff members at Bruno's are Todd Stanganelli, Marc DiBella, and Janet Wante. Malcolm Fulford and K.C. Fuller are the resident towel boys.

Mark "Spazz" Stevenson is now the reigning heavyweight champion of the World Wrestling Federation. Some of his fiercest competitors are Roger "the rock" Maroun, and the amazing tagteam talents of Anne "the weapon" Wadja and Lynda "the cannon" Cote.

Paula Picarillo has just finished her first book "Lies, Lies Can't Believe a Word I Said" with the opening line - "Hey guys wanna hear something....."

Many members of the varsity hockey team went professional, but have missed the Stanley Cup playoffs for the 15th straight time by a goal. Members of the team are Fred Torrisi, Craig Lanouette, John Rose, Ted Tarini, Mike Ricci, Jeff Lima, Jim Battye, and Tim Ford.

After talking off the ears of the entire town, Ray Veno has unleashed himself upon the entire country by starting his own syndicated advice column. Frequent writers are Maryellen Carpenter, Wendy Tardugno, and Mike Stallone.

After changing dates numerous times for the reunion, much like the prom, Marybeth Fleming could not get a table and is now seated in the parking lot.

Angela Delmonte and Jeanine Gagnon arrived with briefcases full of homework they asked for and never finished.

Joanne Florio is currently under investigation for diverting funds from her accounting firm to the Contras.

Kristen Gill was last seen in the Amazon Jungle inspecting plants. David Lee Roth was reported missing the same day in the same area.

After being crowned queen of the senior class, Meredith Emery became the reigning Miss Olympia and currently is the publisher of the magazine "Beautiful Ladies of Bodybuilding."

Rob Kramer became the head coach of the local NBA basketball team "The Men from Methuen". Their undefeated record just goes to show that the varsity basketball team, like good wine improves with age. Members are big men Mike Samian, Dana Kalanta, and Scott Noyes.

Mike Fluet and Mike Sanville have opened up their own Rent-A-Friend service.

After being spotted by outspoken agent Dan Shea at Hampton Beach, Sean Collins has become the model for the newest line of barbie dolls--Malibu Phil.

Colonel Scott Moore, U.S.A.F. retired, could not be present this evening. Although the government disavows any knowledge of his working for them he was last seen flying a "weather plane" over the Soviet Union.

Brian Kuchar finally made his fashion statement on camouflage and came out with his own line of camouflage formal-wear.

Pam Moran became head trainer for the Boston Celtics, but was fired after making Kevin McHale late for a game.

After being "himself" for most of high school, Kevin Carpenito reformed and joined the priesthood. He is presently the religion school teacher fondly known as Father _____.

Tara Rossi tried to convince husband Joel Rodger to run for president, but took the matter into her own hands and is now the Republican nominee.

Sue Ryan and Gina Ducharme have started their own basketball team, "Manute and Spud".

Chris Sciacca has been cited Officer of the Year by the Methuen Police Department. He earned the honor for outstanding duty in giving the field sobriety test.

Mark Ross is now resting comfortably in Happy Acres rest home run by his wife, physical therapist Shiela Murphy. Mark was admitted after having a breakdown at his job as Methuen history teacher after his children put him through the same hell that he put his teachers through.

After graduating valedictorian and salutorian of the class of 1988, Leslie Topham and Kathy Lahey were last seenpushing their bag lady carts down Essex Street.

Steve Jankowski moved to California after graduation where he purchased his Ninja motorcycle. He is seen to the people only as a blur and is known as "Cool Rider".

As the guests are seated and dinner is about to be served, we notice that many of the members of the class of 1988 are missing. As the guests begin to chat among themselves we find the answer--Eileen O'Connell's mother has gone away for the weekend.
